VOL. XII. NO. 53. CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON CO., PA., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1911 One Cent

WHERE TO VOTE ON 30TH

Boundries and Polling Places of New Precincts Indicated

SIX INSTEAD OF THREE

Sixth Street and Washington and Crest Avenues Dividing Lines

As much inquiry has been made regarding the new division of the borough into voting precincts, the Mail today presents a rough diagram of the plan, in order to guide the voters and indicate to them where they may cast their ballots at the primary election Saturday. As previously stated the borough has been divided into six precincts, instead of three, and each voter should make a study of the plan and learn in which precinct he lives and the location of his voting place.

On the supposition that the borough plot is square, instead of being irregular, the central division east and west is Sixth street. The north and south divisions are Washington and Crest avenues and that gives three precincts on each side of Sixth street—three north and three south. The boundaries of each precinct and the polling place in each are as follows:

First Precinct—South side of Sixth street, river, south borough line, and east side of Washington avenue. Polling place, police station on Fallowfield avenue.

Second Precinct—South side of Sixth street, west side of Washington avenue, south borough line, and east side of Crest avenue. Polling place. McKean's greenhouse on Lincoln avenue and Third street.

Third Precinct—South side of Sixth street, west side of Crest avenue, south borough line, west borough line. Polling place, hose house at Fifth street school building.

Fourth Precinct—North side of Sixth street, river, north borough line, east side of Washington avenue and Lincoln avenue, after intersection. Polling place, Charleroi Foundry and Machine Co.

Fifth Precinct—North side of Sixth street, west side of Washington avenue and Lincoln avenue after intersection, north borough line, east side of Crest avenue Polling place, Slavish Lutheran church, on Lincoln avenue.

Sixth Precinct—North of Sixth street, west side of Crest avenue, north borough line, west borough line

These, roughly outlined are the boundaries and polling places, and by reference to the diagram each voter can locate his precinct and where he is to vote, and thus avoid confusion on election day. The hours for holding the primaries Saturday are from 2 until 8 p. m.

Notice.

To the Republican voters of Charleroi. This is to notify you that I will not be a candidate for the office of School Director at the coming election. Thanking my friends for their kindness I am

GOVERMENT TO DEPORT WOMAN

Husband Will Be Extradicted to Germany on Charges of Burglary

Agents of the Pittsburg Immigration Bureau were in Charleroi today to make arrangements for the deportation of Mrs. Jacob Biggert who, it will be remembered, was arrested in Charleroi September 6 on charges of burglary and other crimes committed in Germany. Biggert will be extradited by the German government, and the United States government will deport his wife, who has been stopping with friends in Charleroi. The woman's baggage was shipped out today, and she expects to leave tomorrow for New York where she will be deported on the same steamer that will deliver her husband to the German authorities.

FIXES LINCOLN AVENUE GRADE

Council Considers Ordinance and Discusses Sewer Improvements

Council put in a busy session Wednesday night, although no definite action was taken on any one particular thing except to pass grade ordidinance of Lincoln avenue first-reading. In view of the prospective grading and paving of tht thoroughfare, this was a lengthy proceeding, as the proposed grade covered every foot of the entire avenue, and is specified in detail It will be printed, published and posted according to law before final action is take.

Another matter considered occupied much time. This was the sewer system in various parts of town, particularly in the hill district. In these districts some of the sewers have proven inadequate to carry off the water during the recent heavy rains, and Borough Engineer Elder was instructed to look them over and report. He did so, and the various sections were taken up and discussed in detail. Various changes were recommended, as well as the addition of more catch basins.

Those present at the meting were President J. K. Hein, C. O. Frye, W. R. Gaut and Dr. A. O. Davis.

POPULAR COUPLE WEDDED IN CHURCH

At nupital high mass at St. Perome's Catholic church this morning occurred the wedding of Miss Martha Liptow and James Barnett, two well known and popular young people of Charleroi. Rev. W. D. Fries, pastor of the church officiated, and a large company of friends of the young couple was in attendance. The attendants of the bride and groom were Miss Phyllis Deane and John Liptow, a brother of the bride. The bride is an accomplished young woman with a large circle of friends in her social set, and the groom is equally regarded among the male population. He is shipping clerk at the Hussy-Binns Shovel factory, a position of trust that he has filled for some time.

TEACHER RESIGNS ELECT ANOTHER

Board Calls Extra Meeting to Fill Unexpected Vacancy

Just as the Charleroi school board get all the vacancies in their teaching corps filled, and expect to get down to solid work, a crack appears in the foundation which has to be patched up. This was the case Wednesday. At the meeting Tuesday night Miss Adelaide Schott of Pittsburg was elected to teach in the High School, but the next morning, word comes over the telephone that she has also been elected to fill a position in the Allegheny schools which she has accepted in preference to Charleroi. She is much obliged to the board, but really cannot accept the position in the Charleroi schools.

That being the case the board met again Wednesday night to fill the vacancy. Miss Lois Haber of McKeesport was elected, but before the board adjourned a call was sent over the long distance telephone to make sure Miss Haber would accept. Yes, she would, she said, and promised to be here today and enter upon her duties. Every member of the board was present and when it comes to electing school ma'ams, the board will like General Grant, keep on the job if it takes all winter.

Fine Apples.

J A. Myers brought to the Mail office some remarkably fine specimens of apples Wednesday, which were grown in the orchard of Robt. Martin of Pigeon Creek, five miles from Bentleyville. Mr. Myers disposed of 25 bushels of apples and three barrels of cider in Charleroi.

YOUTH IS SENT TO TRAINING SCHOOL

Confesses to Theft in Charleroi and Father Signs Commitment

Upon information of his father, Robert Trindor, the 19-year-old youth who was arrested on a charge of stealing merchandise from a buggy of Earl Carson which was hitched on Fifth street Saturday night, was committed to the Industrial Training school at Morganza. The information was made before 'Squire Rice last evening, which was subscribed to by three witnesses to whom the youth confessed that he had taken goods. Trindor was taken over to Morganza this morning by Constable David Mathers of North Charleroi. Herbert Pegg a 15-year-old boy who was charged with being an accomplice in the theft, has not yet been apprehended.

Holds Interesting Session.

The local lodge of Elks held an interesting session last Wednesday evening. A number of new members were initiated, and a pleasant social time was enjoyed after the regular order of business. Governor John K. Tener was present and made an interesting address to the members of his home lodge.

PAPER KNOCKS BOARD

Washington Record Urges Defeat of Present Poor Directors.

COMPLAINTS TO STATE

Present Members Charged With Inefficiency and Salary Grabbing.

Although the grand jury exonerated the poor directors and the management of the Children's Home of the charges brought against them by the Children's Aid Society of Washington, the Washington Record takes a knock at the directors, who are candidates for re-election, and advises voters to select candidates to vote for from the others who are out for the nomination for poor directors. The two Republican members are J. A. Emery and William Courson, and they are charged with salary grabbing and general inefficiency. It is a noteworthy fact that the alleged Republican slate, which was framed up supposedly of the strongest candidates in the various sections, did not contain the names of the present poor directors.

"Emery, Courson and Buchanan"—the latter of whom is the Democratic member—says the Washington Record, "are condemned on two genera. charges. They are:

"Both the County Home and the Children's Home, under the present board, are poorly managed and condemned, the methods are not up-to-date and the children's home particularly fails to fulfil its proper functions, as the children there cared for, while they may be given enough to eat and fairly comfortable quarters, are neglected in every detail which goes to give them education or useful training. It is hardly denied that the children know how to use knives and forks and plates.

"The recent complaints of the Children's Aid Society, which not sustained before the grand jury, were hardly as severe in some particulars as have been complaints made to the State Board of Charities and it is well known in official circles that the State will not much longer tolerate the conditions which have exicted at both of the homes. It was no doubt expected by the State that the recent public charges and the nearness of a primary election, would so arouse the people of the county that they would discover for themselves the truth about the Poor Board and its administration and that the election would perhaps cure all the matters concerning which just complaint has been made.

"The other general charge against the Poor Directors is that they have not kept faith with the county officials and with the public in the matter of their increase in salaries. This is a chapter which in itself would ordinarily condemn a public official to retirement at the first opportunity given the people to speak their minds.

"The last General Assembly increased the salaries of the members of the poor board, in counties of the population of Washington, $200 per annum. There were several legal problems to be solved. One was

GHOST STILL STALKS.

When the grand jury whitewashed the investigations of the county Children's Home and exonerated the institution and the poor directors of the charges made against them, the Mail stated that the charges, like Banquo's ghost would not down. The people were indignant, particularly the various charitable and women's associations who knew circumstances and conditions.

Because the grand jury, which had served notice to the poor directors that they were to be "investigated" on a certain day and date, found nothing absolutely criminal, they fully exonerated the officials and the matron of the Children's Home, and ignored the charges. The Washington Record defended the poor directors at the time and sustained the action of the grand jury. Now the Record is of the opinion of the Mail that the poor directors are inefficient and that both the Children's Home and the County Home are mismanaged. The article quoted from the Record published in the news columns elsewhere, fully sustains the position taken by the Mail at the time the grand jury applied its coat of whitewash.

The Mail is pleased to reproduce the alleged exposure, and echoes the wish of the Record that the Republican voters will repudiate the old directors at the primary. There are plenty of good candidates to select from, and as the people know there is mismanagement and neglect at the Children's Home in particlar, it is time to make a radical change in the management.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"A Charleroi boy who attends a Pittsburg academy, tells how he "pulled one over" on the professor of physics a day or two ago. The professor was dilating on force, which he was endeavoring to explain to the class.

"Force," said he, "is something that cannot be seen. It is one substance acting against another, yet it is invisible. Did any of you ever see force?" he suddenly asked, looking around over the class.

"Yes, sir," replied the Charleroi lad, holding up his hand.

"Where did you ever see force?" asked the professor, somewhat abashed that his assertion should be questioned

"In a grocery!" exclaimed the boy.

The balance of the class shouted, and the boy got called down for working off what the professor termed silly jokes."

An employe on one of the government repair boats that was operating up the river in West Virginia during the summer, tells of a good story that he heard about two farmers who lived near where the boat was located. One of the farmers was a thrifty and industrious man and kept his farm well cultivated and free from brush and briars. The other was shiftless and "doless," and allowed the fence corners and other portions of his farm to grow up with briars. This continued until this year he had a good growth of blackberry briars, which produced a bountiful crop of berries.

The thrifty farmer, having no blackberry briars on his farm, slipped over into his neighbor's field one morning to pick some berries. He was seen by the owner who called out to him:

"Hey, there! what are you doing?"

"Picking a few blackberries. There are none on my place, and I thought you wouldn't mind."

"You git right out of there! If you're too blamed lazy to raise your own blackberries, I'm not going to do it for you."

Firemen in Brownsville.

A big delegation of the Charleroi Volunteer Fire Department went to South Brownsville today to take part in the field meet with the fire department of that town. As stated a program of a ball game in the forenoon has been arranged with races and a water battle in the afternoon. Some of the firemen and their friends went on the morning train and some on the noon train.

T. J. Allen made a business trip to Brownsville today.

whether the board in office at the time of the enactment could enjoy the raise. Another was at what time the increase became effective, if the present members were entitled to it. Instead of making an open effort to determine their standing, and against advice, the poor board took advantage of a system of accounting by which the county commissioners allow them parts of their appropriations in advance and the commissioners and the controller discovered to their surprise that the poor directors had put the entire increase of $200 down into their pockets.

"There was a protest and an investigation. Courson and Emery agreed that they would accept service in a friendly suit to determine the right of the board in the matter. Buchanan said, practically he had the money and wanted to know what the county was going to do about it. Then the other directors became obstreperous. They and their counsel failed to make good the promise to stand a friendly suit and a settlement with the county was put off from month to month because the controller and commissioners have no right to withhold the amount in dispute from new payrolls They can surcharge and sue to recover.

"When the grand jury was investigating the poor directors they showed some signs of wanting to be good and Courson and Emery promised that they would, at the next meeting of the board, agree upon a course to be pursued in good faith with the county in determining the nasty question whether they were entitled to the money they had already collected and put into their pockets. Apparently they agreed to go along with the Buchanan "What are you going to do about it?" policy. Next Saturday the people of the county will have their say at the polls The answer will no doubt be unmistakable."

McClure Mason was a Pittsburg visitor today.

People Will Win

J. H. Bowers the Treasurership Candidate of the Whole People Picked as Winner

It is now conceded by everyone and most of the candidates themselves that J. H. Bowers of Charleroi will be nominated for County Treasurer easily. The great tide of public sentiment which has turned toword the popular candidate within the last few days has determined the contest. Everywhere Mr. Bowers is greeted as the next Treasurer of Washington County, and he has been styled the candidate of the whole people. He is an independent Republican candidate for the office and the rank and file of the party are with him. The fact that for years he has been a successful business man has reached the people. They want a business administration, and Mr. Bowers' sterling honesty and high integrity soon placed him in the front of the contest. His qualifications make him the logical candidate and the people have found it out. They are with him and they are determined to nominate him. The will of the people cannot be frustrated. They want Mr. Bowers and Mr. Bowers will be nominated.

It is now conceded that the candidate of the people for Treasurer will sweep everything in front of him in his own home town and throughout the rural districts he will get an enormous vote. Reports from every part of the County point to him as the high man on the Republican ticket. He will lead the ticket in many voting precincts. Mr. Bowers' long record of fighting the battles of the taxpayers in the County is now showing up to his advantage. They are with him everywhere and are working for his success. The taxpaying public is making no mistke in overwhelmingly nominating such a man as Mr. Bowers. His advent into office will mean stability to our finances and a clear gain to the taxpayers. He will sweep the county. John H. Bowers.

CHARLEROI HAS A CANDIDATE FOR TREAS.

Charleroi has a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, who is in every way fitted for the position and one whom all our citizens would like to see elected. From what I can hear his chances for the nomination are growing stronger every day and I know for a certainty that he is the choice of the workingman for the reason he is the kind of a man the laboring people can talk to, and feel that he is sincere. John Bowers is a plain, blunt man, who is honest as the day is long. He is one you could never imagine going around doing things at the dictation of any boss, or making pretensions for the sake of votes. If he gets there you can depend upon it, nothing but honorable means were used by him in his election. I am a workingman, and ask all others, who work for their daily bread to support him, as I am going to do, because I do not think there is any other candidate in the field, who is as much deserving of the confidence of the common people, as he is. When September 30 comes around, vote for him.

To the Voters of Washington County

I am a candidate for re-nomination for the office of District Attorney on the Republican ticket at the primaries to be held Saturday, September 30th, 1911.

During my present term you have had an opportunity to observe the manner in which the office has been conducted. If the administration of the office during that period has met with your approval, then I respectfully ask for your support at the coming primaries.

If re-nominated and re-elected I promise that the policy of the office will be the same in the future as it has been in the past, and that its administration will not be influenced by questions of politics or of political expediency.

So why wait when Thompson's Barosma is guaranteed to restore your health. Get a bottle today at W. F. Hennings'. There are two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00.

Five years ago Charles Schultz of Dunkirk, N. Y. was so weak and run down that he decided to give up his business. He took Barosma, and in a few months he regained his health gained 55 pounds in weight. Today he writes: "I have been in perfect health ever since I wrote you five years ago." All druggists.

BOWERS MEETING WITH ENCOURGEMENT

John H. Bowers of Charleroi, has almost completed his canvass of Washington county, and from every locality where he has come in contact with the voters there are encouraging reports of his work. He appeals to all classes of people, because he has known what it is to struggle with the world and such success as has come to a business way has been brought about through his own earnest efforts. Workingmen readily recognize him as one who has earned his bread by the sweat of his brow and for this reason are drawn to him. He also mixes well with the business men of the county, as he is always interested in the mercantile conditions of a community, being in the hardware business in Charleroi. As a Republican he has a fine record and members of the party are soon convinced that he is the simon-pure article in politics as in every day life.

Vote for Bowers. He will hold down the office of county treasurer in a manner creditable to the county, Charleroi, the town of his residence, and himself

Thomas Mitchell

Earnestly solicits the support of the laboring men of Washington County.

In Thomas Mitchell, as a candidate, the working men of the County have a true friend whom they should support. A man who has always been on the right side of the Labor Question, being a member of the Central Trades Assembly of Washington, Pa., and is always ready and willing to devote his time, and give his aid to anything pertaining to the workingman's interest. A man of spotless character, with the ability of discharging the duties of County Commissioner in an honest and upright manner, if elected.

Vote for Thomas Mitchell for County Commissioner.

POLITICAL ADVERTISING POLITICAL ADVERTISING. POLITICAL ADVERTISING.

PLATFORM

To The Voters of The County:

As a candidate for county treasurer on the Democratic and Keystone tickets I want to publicly pledge what I have privately expressed to all to whom I have submitted my claims as a candidate for this important office—that if nominated and elected I will be free to exercise the dudies of that office without obligations to any party faction, individual or banking institution.

I believe that the money of the county should be used by the treasurer so that the taxpayers will derive the greatest possible benefit.

I will purchase my own bond and will in no way, directly or indirectly, be under obligations to any financial institution.

I believe that the funds which are lying idle in the treasury should be working in the interests of the people. To that end I will deposit the funds where the county can secure the best rate of interest and at same time be amply secured. Further than this I believe that there are times. when certain funds can be placed at interest greater than any bank can afford to bid for the entire deposit and being free from any entanglements or from any obligations, implied or expressed, it will be my endeavor to so place the county's money at all times, as I would do if managing a large business enterprise or as I would do in my own private affairs.

To this end I will endeavor to keep the working balance in the county's depositories at the minimum, so that the remaining funds may be put out in the different financial institutions in the county, proportion to their standing, at rates which they afford to individuals. All the banks and trust companies in the county will be considered in this proposition and all will have an equal chance in handling the funds of the county. I believe in a "square deal" to all.

I have had a training in the banking business which I believe will be of value to the taxpayers of this county in conducting the important office of treasurer. I will aim at all times to make the office one for the people's benefit and not a sinecure for myself or for any banking institution.

I submit my candidacy for the nomination to the consideration of the voters of the Democratic and Keystone parties of Washington county.

C. S. RITCHIE

North Franklin Township

Primaries September 30, 1911. According to Rules of the Republican Party.

A few reasons why! Charles S. Ritchie should be nominated and elected Treasurer of Washington County.

1st. He promises if elected to conduct the office in a strictly business like manner and to be governed according to the laws of the State of Pennsylvania regulating the duties of County Treasurer.

2nd. He has thoroughly qualified himself as to ability and fitness by his work as Deputy Controller in producing and installing a system of bookkeeping in the County Controller's office, by which the taxpayers can learn every day all about the fiscal affairs of Washington County.

3rd. He is not a slated candidate but a candidate of the people and not a slate maker but a slate breaker. Vote for him.

THIEF GETS $200 HAUL AT MONON

Bold Daylight Robbery Pulled Off at Hotel Glasser

A sneak thief cleaned up $200 at Monongahela Tuesday and got away with the coin in one of the boldest robberies pulled off for some time. The thief is thought to have caught the 6:15 train for Pittsburg. The police of all the towns along the river and the bureau of detectives in Pittsburg have been notified and furnished a good description.

A man giving his name as O. S. Simpson, came to the Glasser hotel about 5:40 o'clock Tuesday evening He registered from Cleveland, O., and was asigned to a room.

A man with Simpson did not register, but accompanied him to the room. In a short time the second man left the hotel. In the meantime it is belived, Simpson visited every room on the second and third floors, opening bureau drawers and ransacking them of their contents. He took $50 out of the room of Mrs. Mary Glasser, mother of the owner of the hotel; $40 out of the room of the proprietor; $9 out of the room of a chambermaid, besides prperty from other room, valued at $100.

Simpson came down stairs and told one of the waitresses that he was in a hurry to catch the 6:15 train to Pittsburg and asked that he be served with a cold supper. It was not until after he had left the hotel that the robbery was discovered.

Simpson was dressedin a light grey suit and soft hat, and had all the appearance of a prosperous business man. It is not known what became of Simpson's compaion, but it is thought they left town on the same train.

FALL OF PAINTER RESULTS FATALLY

When shortly before noon Wednesday Joseph Barron ,aged 24 years, a painter in the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad missed his footing and fell 20 feet from a trestle he sustained injuries which resulted in his death at 5 o'clock in the evening at the Memorial hospital at Monongahela. Barren was painting a trestle at Vance Mills Junction on the Redstone branch of the Pennsylvania. When at the end of the trestle he slipped and shot downward receivinng a fracture of the skull in the fall. The young man's home was at Becks Run, where his parents reside.

Bees Recognize Man as Friend.

Charles Potchenick, employed by the Maverick apiaries near San Antonio, Tex., has unusual control over bees. He handles them with as much ease as one would in playing with kittens or a harmless pet. While working with them he goes bare-armed and bare-faced and pays no attention to the insects as they crawl over his exposed hands and arms or pile up in great clumps on his face. Recently he had a picture taken holding a small limb in his teeth on which a swarm had settled. The bees formed a kind of long beard hanging below his waist and his entire face was covered with those that crawled from the limb. Old bee keepers say that his feats in handling bees are the most remarkable in the world. He claims that he has not been stung in two years.

Library for Children.

A library for children is a comparatively new thing in London. A new one in Manresa-road, Chelsea, is a model of its kind. It had its origin in a boys' room, concerning which Earl Cadogan, when he opened it made the fierce joke that "as everyone knows, a boy's room is better than his company." Out of this boys' room grew the children's library, a place of deep silence, where boys and girls meet for the common pursuit of knowledge.

VOL. XII NO. 53. CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON CO., PA., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1911 One Cent

WHERE TO VOTE ON 30TH

Boundries and Polling Places of New Precincts Indicated

SIX INSTEAD OF THREE

Sixth Street and Washington and Crest Avenues Dividing Lines

As much inquiry has been made regarding the new division of the borough into voting precincts, the Mail today presents a rough diagram of the plan, in order to guide the voters and indicate to them where they may cast their ballots at the primary election Saturday. As previously stated the borough has been divided into six precincts, instead of three, and each voter should make a study of the plan and learn in which precinct he lives and the location of his voting place.

On the supposition that the borough plot is square, instead of being irregular, the central division east and west is Sixth street. The north and south divisions are Washington and Crest avenues and that gives three precincts on each side of Sixth street—three north and three south. The boundaries of each precinct and the polling place in each are as follows:

First Precinct—Southside of Sixth street, river, south borough line, and east side of Washington avenue. Polling place, police station on Fallowfield avenue.

Second Precinct—South side of Sixth street, west side of Washington avenue, south borough line, and east side of Crest avenue. Polling place, McKean's greenhouse on Lincoln avenue and Third street.

Third Precinct—South side of Sixth street, west side of Crest avenue, south borough line, west borough line. Polling place, hose house at Fifth street school building.

Fourth Precinct—North side of Sixth street, river, north borough line, east side of Washington avenue and Lincoln avenue, after intersection. Polling place. Charleroi Foundry and Machine Co.

Fifth Precinct—North side of Sixth street, west side of Washington avenue and Lincoln avenue after intersection, north borough line, east side of Crest avenue Polling place, Slavish Lutheran church, on Lincoln avenue.

Sixth Precinct—North of Sixth street, west side of Crest avenue, north borough line, west borough line

These, roughly outlined are the boundaries and polling places, and by reference to the diagram each voter can locate his precinct and where he is to vote, and thus avoid confusion on election day. The hours for holding the primaries Saturday are from 2 until 8 p. m.

FIXES LINCOLN AVENUE GRADE

Council Considers Ordinance and Discusses Sewer Improvements

Council put in a busy session Wednesday night, although no definite action was taken on any one particular thing except to pass grade ordidinance of Lincoln avenue first-reading. In view of the prospective grading and paving of tht thoroughfare, this was a lengthy proceeding, as the proposed grade covered every foot of the entire avenue, and is specified in detail It will be printed, published and posted according to law before final action is take.

Another matter considered occupied much time. This was the sewer system in various parts of town, particularly in the hill district. In these districts some of the sewers have proven inadequate to carry off the water during the recent heavy rains, and Borough Engineer Elder was instructed to look them over and report. He did so, and the various sections were taken up and discussed in detail. Various changes were recommended, as well as the addition of more catch basins.

Those present at the meting were President J. K. Hein, C. O. Frye, W. R. Gaut and Dr. A. O. Davis.

POPULAR COUPLE WEDDED IN CHURCH

At nupital high mass at St. Perome's Catholic church this morning occurred the wedding of Miss Martha Liptow and James Barnett, two well known and popular young people of Charleroi. Rev. W. D. Fries, pastor of the church officiated, and a large company of friends of the young couple was in attendance. The attendants of the bride and groom were Miss Phyllis Deane and John Liptow, a brother of the bride. The bride is an accomplished young woman with a large circle of friends in her social set, and the groom is equally regarded among the male population. He is shipping clerk at the Hussy-Binns Shovel factory, a position of trust that he has filled for some time.

TEACHER RESIGNS ELECT ANOTHER

Board Calls Extra Meeting to Fill Unexpected Vacancy

Just as the Charleroi school board get all the vacancies in their teaching corps filled, and expect to get down to solid work, a crack appears in the foundation which has to be patched up. This was the case Wednesday. At the meeting Tuesday night Miss Adelaide Schott of Pittsburg was elected to teach in the High School, but the next morning, word comes over the telephone that she has also been elected to fill a position in the Allegheny schools which she has accepted in preference to Charleroi. She is much obliged to the board, but really cannot accept the position in the Charleroi schools.

That being the case the board met again Wednesday night to fill the vacancy. Miss Lois Haber of McKeesport was elected, but before the board adjourned a call was sent over the long distance telephone to make sure Miss Haber would accept. Yes, she would, she said, and promised to be here today and enter upon her duties. Every member of the board was present and when it comes to electing school ma'ams, the board will like General Grant, keep on the job if it takes all winter.

YOUTH IS SENT TO TRAINING SCHOOL

Confesses to Theft in Charleroi and Father Signs Commitment

Upon information of his father, Robert Trindor, the 19-year-old youth who was arrested on a charge of stealing merchandise from a buggy of Earl Carson which was hitched on Fifth street Saturday night, was committed to the Industrial Training school at Morganza. The information was made before 'Squire Rice last evening, which was subscribed to by three witnesses to whom the youth confessed that he had taken goods. Trindor was taken over to Morganza this morning by Constable David Mathers of North Charleroi. Herbert Pegg a 15-year-old boy who was charged with being an accomplice in the theft, has not yet been apprehended.

Washington Record Urges Defeat of Present Poor Directors

COMPLAINTS TO STATE

Present Members Charged With Inefficiency and Salary Grabbing

Although the grand jury exonerated the poor directors and the management of the Children's Home of the charges brought against them by the Children's Aid Society of Washington, the Washington Record takes a knock at the directors, who are candidates for re-election, and advises voters to select candidates to vote for from the others who are out for the nomination for poor directors. The two Republican members are J. A. Emery and William Courson, and they are charged with salary grabbing and general inefficiency. It is a noteworthy fact that the alleged Republican slate, which was framed up supposedly of the strongest candidates in the various sections, did not contain the names of the present poor directors.

"Emery, Courson and Buchanan"—the latter of whom is the Democratic member—says the Washington Record, "are condemned on two general charges. They are:

"Both the County Home and the Children's Home, under the present board, are poorly managed and condemned, the methods are not up-to-date and the children's home particularly fails to fulfil its proper functions, as the children there cared for, while they may be given enough to eat and fairly comfortable quarters, are neglected in every detail which goes to give them education or useful training. It is hardly denied that the children know how to use knives and forks and plates.

"The recent complaints of the Children's Aid Society, which not sustained before the grand jury, were hardly as severe in some particulars as have been complaints made to the State Board of Charities and it is well known in official circles that the State will not much longer tolerate the conditions which have exicted at both of the homes. It was no doubt expected by the State that the recent public charges and the nearness of a primary election, would so arouse the people of the county that they would discover for themselves the truth about the Poor Board and its administration and that the election would perhaps cure all the matters concerning which just complaint has been made.

"The other general charge against the Poor Directors is that they have not kept faith with the county officials and with the public in the matter of their increase in salaries. This is a chapter which in itself would ordinarily condemn a public official to retirement at the first opportunity given the people to speak their minds.

"The last General Assembly increased the salaries of the members of the poor board, in counties of the population of Washington, $200 per annum. There were several legal problems to be solved. One was

GHOST STILL STALKS.

When the grand jury whitewashed the investigations of the county Children's Home and exonerated the institution and the poor directors of the charges made against them, the Mail stated that the charges, like Banquo's ghost would not down. The people were indignant, particularly the various charitable and women's associations who knew circumstances and conditions.

Because the grand jury, which had served notice to the poor directors that they were to be "investigated" on a certain day and date, found nothing absolutely criminal, they fully exonerated the officials and the matron of the Children's Home, and ignored the charges. The Washington Record defended the poor directors at the time and sustained the action of the grand jury. Now the Record is of the opinion of the Mail that the poor directors are inefficient and that both the Children's Home and the County Home are mismanaged. The article quoted from the Record published in the news columns elsewhere, fully sustains the position taken by the Mail at the time the grand jury applied its coat of whitewash.

The Mail is pleased to reproduce the alleged exposure, and echoes the wish of the Record that the Republican voters will repudiate the old directors at the primary. There are plenty of good candidates to select from, and as the people know there is mismanagement and neglect at the Children's Home in particlar, it is time to make a radical change in the management.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"A Charleroi boy who attends a Pittsburg academy, tells how he "pulled one over" on the professor of physics a day or two ago. The professor was dilating on force, which he was endeavoring to explain to the class

"Force," said he, "is something that cannot be seen. It is one substance acting against another, yet it is invisible. Did any of you ever see force?" he suddenly asked, looking around over the class

"Yes, sir," replied the Charleroi lad, holding up his hand.

"Where did you ever see force?" asked the professor, somewhat abased that his assertion should be questioned

"In a grocery!" exclaimed the boy.

The balance of the class shouted, and the boy got called down for working off what the professor termed jokes."

An employe on one of the government repair boats that was operating up the river in West Virginia during the summer, tells of a good story that he heard about two farmers who lived near where the boat was located. One of the farmers was a thrifty and industrious man and kept his farm well cultivated and free from brush and briars. The other was shiftless and "loless," and allowed the fence corners and other portions of his farm to grow up with briars. This continued until this year he had a good growth of blackberry briars, which produced a bountiful crop of berries.

The thrifty farmer, having no blackberry briars on his farm, slipped over into his neighbor's field one morning to pick some berries. He was seen by the owner who called out to him:

"Hey, there! what are you doing?"

"Picking a few blackberries. There are none on my place, and I thought you wouldn't mind."

"You git right out of there! If you're too blamed lazy to raise your own blackberries, I'm not going to do it for you."

Firemen in Brownsville.

A big delegation of the Charleroi Volunteer Fire Department went to South Brownsville today to take part in the field meet with the fire department of that town. As stated a program of a ball game in the forenoon has been arranged with races and a water battle in the afternoon Some of the firemen and their friends went on the morning train and some on the noon train.

T. J. Allen made a business trip to Brownsville today.

whether the board in office at the time of the enactment could enjoy the raise. Another was at what time the increase became effective, if the present members were entitled to it. Instead of making an open effort to determine their standing, and against advice, the poor board took advantage of a system of accounting by which the county commissioners allow them parts of their appropriations in advance and the commissioners and the controller discovered to their surprise that the poor directors had put the entire increase of $200 down into their pockets

"There was a protest and an investigation Courson and Emery agreed that they would accept service in a friendly suit to determine the right of the board in the matter. Buchanan said, practically he had the money and wanted to know what the county was going to do about it. Then the other directors became obstreperous. They and their counsel failed to make good the promise to stand a friendly suit and a settlement with the county was put off from month to month because the controller and commissioners have no right to withhold the amount in dispute from new payrolls They can surcharge and sue to recover.

"When the grand jury was investigating the poor directors they showed some signs of wanting to be good and Courson and Emery promised that they would, at the next meeting of the board, agree upon a course to be pursued in good faith with the county in determining the nasty question whether they were entitled to the money they had already collected and put into their pockets. Apparently they agreed to go along with the Buchanan "What are you going to do about it?" policy. Next Saturday the people of the county will have their say at the polls The answer will no doubt be unmistakable."

McClure Mason was a Pittsburg visitor today.

People Will Win

J. H. Bowers the Treasurership Candidate of the Whole People Picked as Winner

It is now conceded by everyone and most of the candidates themselves that J. H. Bowers of Charleroi will be nominated for County Treasurer easily. The great tide of public sentiment which has turned toword the popular candidate within the last few days has determined the contest. Everywhere Mr. Bowers is greeted as the next Treasurer of Washington County, and he has been styled the candidate of the whole people. He is an independent Republican candidate for the office and the rank and file of the party are with him. The fact that for years he has been a successful business man has reached the people. They want a business administration, and Mr. Bowers' sterling honesty and high integrity soon placed him in the front of the contest. His qualifications make him the logical candidate and the people have found it out. They are with him and they are determined to nominate him. The will of the people cannot be frustrated. They want Mr. Bowers and Mr. Bowers will be nominated.

It is now conceded that the candidate of the people for Treasurer will sweep everything in front of him in his own home town and throughout the rural districts he will get an enormous vote. Reports from every part of the County point to him as the high man on the Republican ticket. He will lead the ticket in many voting precincts. Mr. Bowers' long record of fighting the battles of the taxpayers in the County is now showing up to his advantage. They are with him everywhere and are working for his success. The taxpaying public is making no mistke in overwhelmingly nominating such a man as Mr. Bowers. His advent into office will mean stability to our finances and a clear gain to the taxpayers. He will sweep the county. John H. Bowers.

CHARLEROI HAS A CANDIDATE FOR TREAS.

Charleroi has a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, who is in every way fitted for the position and one whom all our citizens would like to see elected. From what I can hear his chances for the nomination are growing stronger every day and I know for a certainty that he is the choice of the workingman for the reason he is the kind of a man the laboring people can talk to, and feel that he is sincere. John Bowers is a plain, blunt man, who is honest as the day is long. He is one you could never imagine going around doing things at the dictation of any boss, or making pretensions for the sake of votes. If he gets there you can depend upon it, nothing but honorable means were used by him in his election. I am a workingman, and ask all others, who work for their daily bread to support him, as I am going to do, because I do not think there is any other candidate in the field, who is as much deserving of the confidence of the common people, as he is. When September 30 comes around, vote for him.

WORKINGMAN.

Stung.

Signor Grasso, the Sicilian actor, was so carried away by the enthusiastic reception given to the performance of the third act of "Malia" at the London Hippodrome, that he caught the actor who had played the part of his sturdy rival in that tragic episode round the neck with his left arm, grabbed his hair with his right hand, and kissed him.—London Daily Mail

To the Voters of Washington County

I am a candidate for re-nomination for the office of District Attorney on the Republican ticket at the primaries to be held Saturday, September 30th, 1911.

During my present term you have had an opportunity to observe the manner in which the office has been conducted. If the administration of the office during that period has met with your approval, then I respectfully ask for your support at the coming primaries.

If re-nominated and re-elected I promise that the policy of the office will be the same in the future as it has been in the past, and that its administration will not be influenced by questions of politics or of political expediency.

BOWERS MEETING WITH ENCOURGEMENT

John H. Bowers of Charleroi, has almost completed his canvass of Washington county, and from every locality where he has come in contact with the voters there are encouraging reports of his work. He appeals to all classes of people, because he has known what it is to struggle with the world and such success as has come to a business way has been brought about through his own earnest efforts. Workingmen readily recognize him as one who has earned his bread by the sweat of his brow and for this reason are drawn to him. He also mixes well with the business men of the county, as he is always interested in the mercantile conditions of a community, being in the hardware business in Charleroi. As a Republican he has a fine record and members of the party are soon convinced that he is the simon-pure article in politics as in every day life.

Vote for Bowers. He will look down the office of county treasurer in a manner creditable to the county, Charleroi, the town of his residence, and himself

NOTICE.

On Saturday, September 30, the laundry of William Yee and Frank Fong on Sixth street will be sold to Yee Wah. For County Commissioner

Subject to Republican Rules

Thomas Mitchell

Earnestly solicits the support of the laboring men of Washington County.

In Thomas Mitchell, as a candidate, the working men of the County have a true friend whom they should support. A man who has always been on the right side of the Labor Question, being a member of the Central Trades Assembly of Washington, Pa., and is always ready and willing to devote his time, and give his aid to anything pertaining to the workingman's interest. A man of spotless character, with the ability of discharging the duties of County Commissioner in an honest and upright manner, if elected.

Vote for Thomas Mitchell for County Commissioner.

PLATFORM

To The Voters of The County:

As a candidate for county treasurer on the Democratic and Keystone tickets I want to publicly pledge what I have privately expressed to all to whom I have submitted my claims as a candidate for this important office—that if nominated and elected I will be free to exercise the dudies of that office without obligations to any party faction, individual or banking institution.

I believe that the money of the county should be used by the treasurer so that the taxpayers will derive the greatest possible benefit.

I will purchase my own bond and will in no way, directly or indirectly, be under obligations to any financial institution.

I believe that the funds which are lying idle in the treasury should be working in the interests of the people. To that end I will deposit the funds where the county can secure the best rate of interest and at same time be amply secured. Further than this I believe that there are times. when certain funds can be placed at interest greater than any bank can afford to bid for the entire deposit and being free from any entanglements or from any obligations, implied or expressed, it will be my endeavor to so place the county's money at all times, as I would do if managing a large business enterprise or as I would do in my own private affairs.

To this end I will endeavor to keep the working balance in the county's depositories at the minimum, so that the remaining funds may be put out in the different financial institutions in the county, proportion to their standing, at rates which they afford to individuals. All the banks and trust companies in the county will be considered in this proposition and all will have an equal chance in handling the funds of the county. I believe in a "square deal" to all.

I have had a training in the banking business which I believe will be of value to the taxpayers of this county in conducting the important office of treasurer. I will aim at all times to make the office one for the people's benefit and not a sinecure for myself or for any banking institution.

I submit my candidacy for the nomination to the consideration of the voters of the Democratic and Keystone parties of Washington county.

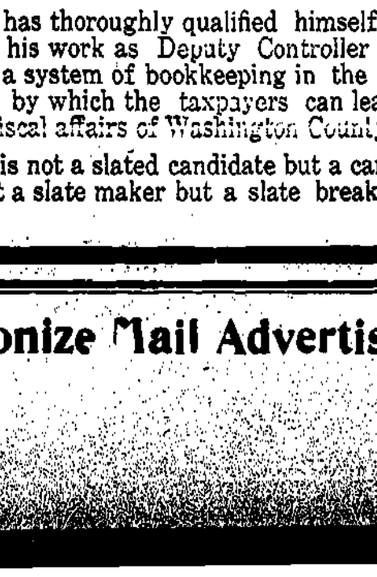
For County Treasurer



C. S. RITCHIE

North Franklin Township

Primaries, September 30, 1911. According to Rules of the Republican Party.

A few reasons why! Charles S. Ritchie should be nominated and elected Treasurer of Washington County.

1st. He promises if elected to conduct the office in a strictly business like manner and to be governed according to the laws of the State of Pennsylvania regulating the duties of County Treasurer.

2nd. He has thoroughly qualified himself as to ability and fitness by his work as Deputy Controller in producing and installing a system of bookkeeping in the County Controller's office, by which the taxpayers can learn every day all about the fiscal affairs of Washington County.

3rd. He is not a slated candidate but a candidate of the people and not a slate maker but a slate breaker. Vote for him.

THIEF GETS $200 HAUL AT MONON

Bold Daylight Robbery Pulled Off at Hotel Glasser

A sneak thief cleaned up $200 at Monongahela Tuesday and got away with the coin in one of the boldest robberies pulled off for some time. The thief is thought to have caught the 6:15 train for Pittsburg. The police of all the towns along the river and the bureau of detectives in Pittsburg have been notified and furnished a good description.

A man giving his name as O. S. Simpson, came to the Glasser hotel about 5:40 o'clock Tuesday evening. He registered from Cleveland, O., and was asigned to a room.

A man with Simpson did not register, but accompanied him to the room. In a short time the second man left the hotel. In the meantime it is belived, Simpson visited every room on the second and third floors, opening bureau drawers and ransacking them of their contents. He took $50 out of the room of Mrs. Mary Glasser, mother of the owner of the hotel; $40 out of the room of the proprietor; $9 out of the room of a chambermaid, besides prperty from other room, valued at $100.

Simpson came down stairs and told one of the waitresses that he was in a hurry to catch the 6:15 train to Pittsburg and asked that he be served with a cold supper. It was not until after he had left the hotel that the robbery was discovered.

Simpson was dressed in a light grey suit and soft hat, and had all the appearance of a prosperous business man. It is not known what became of Simpson's compaion, but it is thought they left town on the same train.

FALL OF PAINTER RESULTS FATALLY

When shortly before noon Wednesday Joseph Barron ,aged 24 years, a painter in the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad missed his footing and fell 20 feet from a trestle he sustained injuries which resulted in his death at 5 o'clock in the evening at the Memorial hospital at Monongahela. Barren was painting a trestle at Vance Mills Junction on the Redstone branch of the Pennsylvania. When at the end of the trestle he slipped and shot downward receivinng a fracture of the skull in the fall. The young man's home was at Becks Run, where his parents reside.

Bees Recognize Man as Friend.

Charles Potchenick, employed by the Maverick apiaries near San Antonio, Tex., has unusual control over bees. He handles them with as much ease as one would in playing with kittens or a harmless pet. While working with them he goes bare-armed and bare-faced and pays no attention to the insects as they crawl over his exposed hands and arms or pile up in great clumps on his face. Recently he had a picture taken holding a small limb in his teeth on which a swarm had settled. The bees formed a kind of long beard hanging below his waist and his entire face was covered with those that crawled from the limb. Old bee keepers say that his feats in handling bees are the most remarkable in the world. He claims that he has not been stung in two years.

Library for Children.

A library for children is a comparatively new thing in London. A new one in Manresa-road, Chelsea, is a model of its kind. It had its origin in a boys' room, concerning which Earl Cadogan, when he opened it made the fierce joke that "as everyone knows, a boy's room is better than his company." Out of this boys' room grew the children's library, a place of deep silence, where boys and girls meet for the common pursuit of knowledge.

HOMER H. SPRIGGS

Makes His Position Clear Concerning the Handling of the County's Funds if Elected Treasurer.

TO THE TAXPAYERS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY:

If nominated and elected to the office of County Treasurer, I will take charge of said office untangled by political or business promises, and will conduct the office on strict business principles. I will furnish my own bond and will obtain for the county the largest possible rate of interest on it's moneys, consisting with the safety of the funds.

Personally, I favor a salary for the office of County Treasurer.

I you are satisfied with the foregoing statement, as being fair to taxpayers at large, I respectfully solict your vote and influence at the coming primaries, Sept. 30, 1911.
